

Book Review:

Isolating Insecurity

by Paul de Jong

What a wonderful thing it is to know our security in God. In this book Pastor Paul shares from his own experiences how he has overcome insecurity in a very practical way.

One of the truths Pastor Paul expresses in his book is that insecurity repels the very connection we long for. It resists relational connection because we see ourselves as being of very little value.

He also says that next to sin itself, insecurity is the one thing that stops us from reaching our God given potential.

We all have insecurities in one form or another. It's just what we do with them

It's a good thing that Pastor Paul has talked about this subject and brought it out into the open.

This book can be borrowed from the Surfside library.
